AUCTION BULLETIN

We have inventoried the Macfarlane China and Glassware, etc., and are awaiting orders from the Trust Company to offer these goods to you.
Many inquiries are made daily. We hope there will be no great delay as they occupy quite a lot of floor space in the rooms that we need and quick action is the essence of the auction business. Visitors cannot understand why these unique and rare things are not promptly sold. The real reason seems to be that they were stored so long that the owner has forgotten them and required an inventory to refresh his memory. This has been forwarded to him in New York and selling orders are expected shortly.
Furniture continues in steady demand, and any usable goods will find prompt sale at Honolulu Auction Rooms. J. S. Bailey.

TOWN STAGGERING
ON ONE SIP OF BEER
MARJESS, III.—One glass of beer has thrown this dry town down into an uproar. One month ago Robert Born, a handsome young athletic director of the Marjess township high school, went to Freeburg with the basket ball team. Between halves he slipped out to a thirteenth impromptu and drank one glass of beer, which has caused the following to happen: Born has been tried and "fired" by the board of education.
Five young women teachers walked out on a strike and demanded Born's reinstatement.
Three hundred students are enjoying an indefinite holiday.
Two members of the education board resigned, but later came back.
Reported that Principal A. A. Fillers and the board present will resign to restore harmony.

"It is a woman's privilege to take money out of her husband's pocket." Magistrate James J. Conway of the Jamaica police court, ruled.
